

Hi Everybody!

NADAC is getting revved up in Florida this winter. New Years weekend, Andrea Entin will be having a 4 day NADAC Fun-raiser Friday thru Monday in Lakeland, followed by a 2 day seminar with Amanda Nelson and Chris Nelson. The next weekend there is the Cool Critters January 7 & 8, 2017 Games trial.

You can get 6 trial days in 2 weekends, Chris will be posting the info soon on the NADAC website. If you would like a working spot for the seminar please contact Andrea at agilitybang@yahoo.com. The seminar is $250 for 2 days or $150 for 1 day.

The premium for the January Games trial has not been approved yet, but will be available for downloading at www.coolcritters.com. The premiums for the November 5 & 6 TBBC NADAC trial and the November 26 & 27 after Thanksgiving trial are now available for downloading.

The NADAC staff will be in Florida for the month of January and the first couple weeks in February. To attract exhibitors to the state, they are thinking of doing a Florida circuit with points from my trials, and points from theirs would combine for a big overall winner. It will be fun!

No Classes

There will be no Friday morning agility classes on September 30

A New Children's Book!

The second book of the Dominick the Donkey series from author Shirley Alarie and illustrated by me is now available at www.amazon.com In this sequel, Domick finds his loving forever family. The Dominick the Donkey books, introduce children to animal advocacy and are based on the true story of a severely abused donkey that was rescued by RVR Horse rescue. All proceeds from the sale of these books go to RVR. I have some books available if anyone would like to purchase them.

The next book currently in production is the story of a little boy who dreams of becoming a pilot, and his best friend...a cat

From Sally Alford

The Kids and Kritters 4H group in Riverview are desperately in need of a Volunteer Instructor on Thursday evenings at 6:00 PM to teach Obedience & Agility at Boyette Animal Hospital to the 4H kids.

They are asking for any enthusiastic 'teacher types' taking classes here the I could recommend? What do you say guys? These kids are the dog trainers and exhibitors of the future!

From Katherine Highfill

Run the Course like each one is your last.

Make it a run that leaves you smiling, if not laughing aloud for the love of the sport.

Otherwise you will have missed the most important thing in Agility,

The love and companionship of a trusted, loyal, and loving canine partner.

...and now, time for a paws...
